Will You be Known as a Champion for Eternity?

True Story: During the 2016 Rio de Janeiro Olympics, some missionaries serving in Colombia observed the national celebration as one of the Colombian athletes won a Gold Medal in weight lifting - one of only 5 Gold Medals ever won by the country of Colombia in Olympic history! That athlete trained and sacrificed for years! There was a national celebration! Just think of it that athlete would be known as a champion for ... only ... 4-short years ..., because someone else would soon be crowned champion.

Christian, do you realize that you will be known in eternity by what you did during your few short years on this earth? In eternity we are going to meet Paul, yes Paul! The man who wrote so many books in the New Testament! And, in eternity we will meet Adam – oh no – Adam will be remembered for eating the forbidden fruit. Do you think Adam knew that God was writing the history of his life? Christian, God may be writing the history of your life right now.

We can be known as "Champions for Eternity" if we will be obedient in using our Kingdom Gifts in the Sphere of Influence God has called us to serve and in the Region of the World God has called us to take the Salt & Light of Christ Jesus. (Matthew 25:23; Matthew 28:18-20)
